1. The Little Seed
A tiny seed beneath the ground,
No one could see it all around.
It waited through the rain and snow,
And slowly started to grow.

2. A Helping Hand
My friend was standing all alone,
He felt so sad, he felt unknown.
I sat beside him for a while,
And soon he gave a little smile.

3. The Broken Clock
An old clock stopped at half past three,
It couldn't tell the time for me.
But Grandpa kept it on the wall,
He said its memories meant it all.

4. The Shooting Star
A shooting star crossed the night,
A little flash of silver light.

It disappeared before my eyes,
But left a dream across the skies.

5. The Race
I ran so fast, I tried my best,
But someone else was first, not me.
I smiled and said, "Well done, my friend!"
There's more to life than victory.

6. The Empty Park
The swings were still, the slide was bare,
No children laughing anywhere.
I missed the games we used to play,
And wished my friends could come toda
