Boxing is popular in many countries. Two fighters wear boxing gloves on their hands. The boxers hit each other until one is knocked out or until the final bell rings. Each part of the fight is three minutes long. It is called a round. Thai boxing is different. The boxing match begins with music. Then the two fighters kneel and pray to god. Next day do a slow dance that copies the movements of that boxing. During this dances, each fighter tries to show the other that he is the best. Then fight begins In Thai boxing, the fighters can kick with their feet and hit each other with their elbows and knees. Of course, they hit with their hands, too. Each round is three minutes long. Then the boxers have a two minutes rest. Most boxers can fight only five round because this kind of fighting is very difficult. Thai boxing began over 500 years ago. If a soldier lost his weapons in a battle, he needed to fight with just his body. The soldiers learned how to use all the parts of their bodies. In 1560, the Burmese army captured Neresuen, the king of Thailand, in a war. King Naresuen was a very good boxer. He won his freedom from burma by defeating all the best burme fighters.
