Part C: Reading Comprehension

In the 18th century, long before books, radios and television sets existed, many people learned a language different from their own. In a world full of printed and spoken words, today people have a better chance to learn languages. Many people learn languages because language is the most useful tool for communication.

It lets us think, learn, and share our thoughts and feelings with others. Moreover, it makes man free from his anger; and finally it is a source of comfort or delight.

Language is important because it is alive, it grows and changes like a living organism. Language can influence a single human being or move a million in one moment.
