

Life in India

Sun rises on a bustling street
Smiles of people I just want to meet
Colors dance and blend so bright
Life in India feels just right

Jab tak hai jaan meri jahaan
Main nachungi, main nachungi
Jab tak hai jaan meri jahaan
Main nachungi, like Sholay ki suni

Cows wander free and roam
Families call each street their home
Spices scent, the morning air
Life in India, everywhere

Jab tak hai jaan meri jahaan
Main nachungi, main nachungi
Jab tak hai jaan meri jahaan
Main nachungi, like Sholay ki suni

From the mountains to the sea
This is where I want to be
Stories woven old and new
Life's canvas painted hue
The street vendor shouts and watches
Children playing without a care
Temples ring with ancient chants
In this land, our spirits dance
