

Check the meanings of the words in an English to English dictionary. Give a short definition of each.

April :

bad:

CD player:

desk:

dictionary:

2 Complete the sentences with the correct form of have got.

Have we got (we) a new English teacher this year?

1 They're very happy. They haven't got homework tonight.

2 My cousin is interested in music and he has got a guitar.

3 You haven't got a history lesson today. It's on Friday.

4 Has the teacher got (the teacher) a new science book?

5 What exercises have you got (you) for your maths homework?

6 Where has she got (she) her history lesson?

3 ★★ Write questions with have got.

Complete answers a–e. Then match questions 1–5 with answers a–e.

1 you / a strict teacher?

Have you got a strict teacher? a

2 your brother / a maths exam on Friday?

Has your brother got a maths exam on Friday?

3 we / two exercises for homework?

Have we got two exercises for homework?

4 the school / a new science laboratory?

Has the school got a new science laboratory?

5 they / an interesting geography book?

Have they got an interesting geography book?

a No, I haven't. She's very nice.

b Yes, they have. It's about mountains.

c No, we haven't. We've got three.

d No, it hasn't. It's got a new music room.

e Yes, he has. He isn't very happy.