all along BMXing by exhausting fitness club gymnastics solar-heated swimming pool weights room

Hi Daniel,

Thanks for your last email and the photos. I've never been <sup>1</sup>BMXing or tried to do <sup>2</sup>gymnastics, but they both sound great fun! My favourite hobby is surfing. It's <sup>3</sup>exhausting at first, but it's great to be outdoors on a sunny day.

Surfing can be frightening when you first start and don't know what you're doing, but it becomes easier. There are surfing clubs <sup>4</sup>all along the coast. I really enjoy exercise, so at school I'm also in the <sup>5</sup>fitness club. We use the <sup>6</sup>weights room once a week at lunchtime and run once or twice a week after school.

Anyway, send me some pictures of your new BMX bike. I like the pictures of your house. You're very lucky to have a <sup>7</sup>swimming pool in your garden. We have one in our village. It's <sup>8</sup>solar-heated so we can use it all year. It's quite small though, and it isn't very relaxing because it's <sup>9</sup>by the main road.

9 Read the text and choose the correct answers.

A Scottish summer camp

Summer camps are becoming more and more popular with young people, but what are they like? Last month, junior reporter Sally Henshaw travelled to Loch Lomond, Scotland, to find out.

'I've been travelling for ten hours,' I thought, when the minibus finally drove past a sign saying 'Welcome to Camp Lomond'. It was dark, and I just wanted to go indoors and jump into a nice, soft bed. But the camp leaders had other ideas. We all had a barbecue, then we sat around a campfire and talked (or fell asleep). Finally, one of the leaders divided us into groups of three and gave us the really bad news.

'Now it's time to put up your tents,' he said.

I don't know how three of us managed to sleep in a tent the size of a single bed, but somehow we did. When we woke up the next day, my new friend Ingrid opened the front of the tent, and we all looked out. There, shining silver between the trees, was Loch Lomond. 'Loch' means 'lake' in Scotland, and Loch Lomond is one of the most beautiful places I've ever seen! That morning after breakfast, we went horse riding around the lake. I've never ridden in such an amazing place.

In the next few days, I went BMX biking, tried rock climbing and played volleyball every day until I couldn't stand up! It was great! The camp organises different activities every day. Most sports activities are in the afternoon, and in the morning you can choose lessons like drawing, chess, drama and cookery. I've never been very good at art or board games – and I'm not a great actor – so I went along to the cookery class. I love food, but I didn't know how to cook anything before I went to Scotland. Since I've been home, I've been baking cakes for my parents! (And they haven't been to hospital with food poisoning yet, so I must be quite good at it!)

You have to work hard on a summer camp. Everybody has to do chores, and you do activities all day, too – you can't just sit around and hang out. But I really had a great time. The best thing about the camp was making new friends. Since I came home, Ingrid and I have been texting every day. The activities are great, but the people are even better.

Have you ever wondered what it's like to go on a summer camp? I'll tell you the answer in two words: exhausting and fun!

- 1 What does Sally say about her first evening at the camp?
- A She was very happy to meet the camp leaders.
  - B She couldn't make a fire.
  - C She slept well in an uncomfortable place.
  - D She didn't have anything to eat.
- 2 What does Sally say about the tent?
- A It wasn't really big enough for three people.
  - B She couldn't make it very well.
  - C She'd never slept in a tent before.
  - D It was very uncomfortable to sleep on the ground.
- 3 What does Sally say about Loch Lomond?
- A It's the biggest lake in Scotland.
  - B It was right next to their camp.
  - C A lot of people go riding there.
  - D It looked amazing when she first saw it.
- 4 Before the camp, Sally had never
- A done any art.
  - B tried drama.
  - C cooked anything.
  - D ridden a horse.
- 5 Which statement correctly describes Sally's visit to Camp Lomond?
- A It was very tiring, and she had to do lots of chores.
  - B She is happy that she went there with some friends.
  - C It wasn't all easy, but she had a great time.
  - D She loved visiting Scotland and wants to go again.
