

Alavi

Dear God,

How wonderful are the works of Your hands. As we gather here today to celebrate a step forward into new places with new people and new experiences, let us not forget the blessings that follow behind us.

For this school, which has given us a safe place to learn. For our teachers, who have so richly loved and cared for us, even at our worst. For our families, who have cheered us on to the finish line and stood by our side's through the many bumps in the road.

And we thank You for the friends that we have found among our classmates. For all the jokes that we will laugh about in years to come, for the hardships and tears we have endured together side by side.

I gained knowledge, so show me how to use it wisely and find a way somehow to make the world I live in a little better place, and make life with its problems a little bit easier to face.

Alavi

Dear God,

How wonderful are the works of Your hands. As we gather here today to celebrate a step forward into new places with new people and new experiences, let us not forget the blessings that follow behind us.

For this school, which has given us a safe place to learn. For our teachers, who have so richly loved and cared for us, even at our worst. For our families, who have cheered us on to the finish line and stood by our side's through the many bumps in the road.

And we thank You for the friends that we have found among our classmates. For all the jokes that we will laugh about in years to come, for the hardships and tears we have endured together side by side.

I gained knowledge, so show me how to use it wisely and find a way somehow to make the world I live in a little better place, and make life with its problems a little bit easier to face.

