

If I were a book .....

-----

-----

-----

-----

-----

-----

-----

-----

-----

-----

Name:

“ Books are windows to endless worlds, guiding us, inspiring dreams, and broadening our minds. This Book Week, let’s celebrate the joy and wisdom that reading brings.”

Happy Book week

Activities

While reading

Here are some untrue sentences. Rewrite them with the correct information.

1. nothing happened when the clock struck one.
2. the ghost took Scrooge back to his past. But Scrooge didn't remember any of it.
3. Scrooge's eyes were wet because he had a cold.

Who said this and to whom?

1. 'You're too rich to be unhappy.'
2. 'I'll see you dead first!'
3. 'Many can't go there, and many prefer to die'

What is message of the story? Explain your ideas.

You should always try.....

The most important thing in life is.....

It's never too late.....

What do you think about this story? Can people really change that easily? Complete the passage to make a different ending for the story. (Use as many words as you like)

Ebenezer Scrooge did not do everything that.....

He did pay Bob Cratchit thirty shillings a year, but poor Bob had to..... It was too late for Scrooge to ....., and soon he became as..... There was no extra wood....., and Scrooge never became.....

Sadly, Tiny Tim.....

The Cratchit family were very unhappy, but they.....

Scrooges heart grew colder and colder, until one day he..... Now he lies in the graveyard, in the cold, hard ground, and nobody.....

