

Alavi

[Verse 1]

There's a time for peace
And there's a time for war
Time to be a man
And know what you're fighting for
You gotta lay it all on the line
'Cause blood is thicker
Than the wine of the enemy
Yeah, there's a time for peace
Time for war
Let's show them what we're fighting for

[Chorus]

If we go down
We go down together
If you wanna fight
We'll fight on forever
Yeah we'll fight on (Fight on)
Fight on (Fight on)
Forever
Yeah we'll fight on (Fight on)
Fight on

Better move your feet
And start taking sides
'Cause right now the lines are thin
Between what's wrong and right
'Cause when the judgment comes
Holy fire
Demons fall
Angels rise
Into glory

Gotta lay it all
On the line
'Cause blood is thicker
Than the wine
Of the enemy
Gotta lay it all
On the line
'Cause blood is thicker
Than the wine
Of the enemy
Gotta lay it all
On the line
'Cause blood is thicker
Than the wine
Of the enemy
Gotta lay it all
On the line
'Cause blood is thicker
Than the wine
Of the enemy
