

Vocabulary: crime

- 1 The son of billionaire businessman Michael Jones was _____ yesterday. The _____ have demanded a _____ of $5,000,000.
- 2 Political extremists _____ a Saudi Arabian airliner early this morning and forced the pilot to fly to Libya.
- 3 A fifty-six year old man was _____ in the street outside the railway station late last night. A man carrying a knife threatened to kill the man if he didn't hand over his wallet.
- 4 The police have arrested six men at Terminal 2 of the international airport as they were trying to _____ three kilograms of heroin into the country. The drugs were hidden in the men's underwear.
- 5 Police have charged a fifty five year old man with _____ after the body of his wife was found in the couple's flat this morning.
- 6 Mr Lucien Chan, principal of the Truth and Purity College in Causeway Bay claims he was _____ after a neighbour photographed him leaving the Hot Lips hostess bar late on Friday evening and threatened to send the photographs to the media unless Chau paid him $100,000. Chau claimed he had lost his way and simply entered the bar 'to ask for directions'.
- 7 Police are investigating a fire which destroyed the Lucky Millionaire Karaoke bar early this morning. A police spokesman has said that they hadn't ruled out _____. The owner of the bar is widely believed to have connections to organized crime.
- 8 A property agent has been arrested in connection with a multi-million dollar property _____. It is believed that customers paid Charlene Tang over $20 million for properties in mainland China that did not exist.
- 9 The driver of a bus that ran over and killed an elderly woman on Saturday has been charged with _____. The woman was crossing the road at a pedestrian crossing when the accident occurred.

Answers

- 1 The son of billionaire businessman Michael Jones was kidnapped yesterday. The kidnappers have demanded a ransom of $5,000,000.
- 2 Political extremists hijacked a Saudi Arabian airliner early this morning and forced the pilot to fly to Libya.
- 3 A fifty-six year old man was mugged in the street outside the railway station late last night. A man carrying a knife threatened to kill the man if he didn't hand over his wallet.
- 4 The police have arrested six men at Terminal 2 of the international airport as they were trying to smuggle three kilograms of heroin into the country. The drugs were hidden in the men's underwear.
- 5 Police have charged a fifty five year old man with murder after the body of his wife was found in the couple's flat this morning.
- 6 Mr Lucien Chau, principal of the Truth and Purity College in Causeway Bay claims he was blackmailed after a neighbour photographed him leaving the Hot Lips hostess bar late on Friday evening and threatened to send the photographs to the media unless Chau paid him $100,000. Chau claimed he had lost his way and simply entered the bar 'to ask for directions'.
- 7 Police are investigating a fire which destroyed the Lucky Millionaire Karaoke bar early this morning. The bar was empty when the fire broke out. A police spokesman has said that they hadn't ruled out arson . The owner of the bar is widely believed to have connections to organized crime.
- 8 A property agent has been arrested in connection with a multi-million dollar property fraud. It is believed that customers paid Charlene Tang over $20 million for properties in mainland China that did not exist.
- 9 The driver of a bus that ran over and killed an elderly woman on Saturday has been charged with manslaughter . The woman was crossing the road at a pedestrian crossing when the accident occurred.