

A Pizza is as delicious as a hamburger.

An orange is as healthy as an apple.

A bus is not as comfortable as a train.

A train is not as slow as a bus.

A motorcycle is not as comfortable as a car.

A car is as modern as a motorcycle.

We use as.....as to say that two things are the same .

We use not as.....as to say that two things are different.

A turtle is not as fast as a rabbit.

Equal

or not?

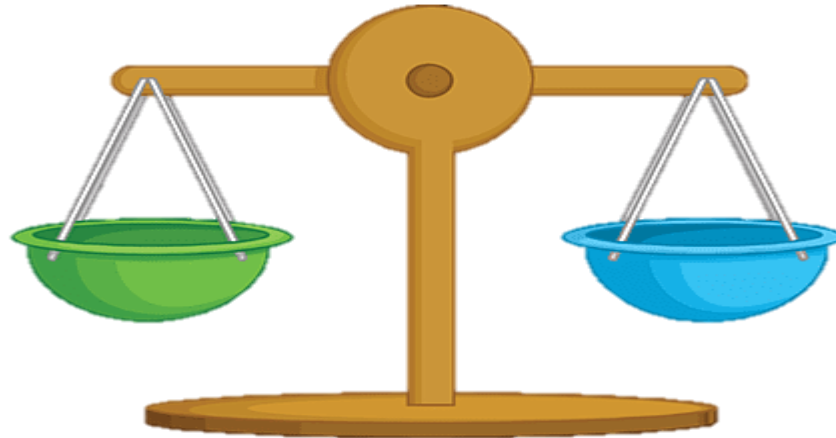

Equality

as adjective

as

Inequality

not as

adjective

as

The girl is as tall as the boy.
The girl is as happy as the boy.
The boy is as slim as the girl.

We use as + adjective/adverb + as to make comparisons when the things we are comparing are equal in some way.

We use not as ... as to make comparisons between things which aren't equal.

Tim is not as heavy as his boss.
Tim is not as fat as his boss.
Tim is not as old as his boss.

1 Read what Nicky thinks and complete the sentences with the same or different.

1 We use as ... as to say that two things are

2 We use not as ... as to say that two things are

Pizza Palace is as popular as Easy Burgers.

The birthday cake at Pizza Palace isn't as good as the one at Easy Burgers.

Pizza Palace isn't as expensive as Easy Burgers.

2 Compare the pairs of things using as ... as or not as ... as.

0 oranges ... lemons

Oranges are as healthy as lemons. /

Lemons are not as sweet as oranges.

1 trains ... buses

comfortable / slow

2 maths ... English

easy / interesting

3 cats ... dogs

friendly / noisy

4 your country ... the UK

hot / big

5 Cristiano Ronaldo (born 1985) ...

young / famous

Marcus Rashford (born 1997)