Before Reading

1. Where are the men?
2. How many people do you see in the picture?
3. What are they doing?
4. What's wrong with the man's arm?

Mark Miles and his son Andy are having a bad morning.

'Where's Gary?' says Mark.

"He isn't usually late. The truck is ready. Everybody's waiting."

Then Gary Slater comes to the office . "He is ill. I've got a bad arm, Mr. Miles." says Gary. "I'm very sorry, but I can't drive today."

- Who is Mark waiting for?
- Why is Gary late?
- Can Gary drive? And why?

Just then, Kim Parker arrives . She is a student.
Her father is one of Mark's drivers. She is working in Mark's office in her holiday.

"Good morning, Mr.Miles." says Kim.
"What can I do first?"

“Can you drive a truck?” says Mark with a little laugh.

“I’ve got tables in Faversham and coffee in Lyon and no driver.”

“Yes I can drive a truck.” says Kim
“I’ve got a licence.”

- Who is Kim Parker?
- What does Kim's father do?
- What is Kim doing?

"Wonderful!" says Mark. He is looking happier.

"Have you got a passport?"

"Of course, it's at home."

Suddenly Mark is much happier.

"Ok. Can you take a truck to France?
Here is some French money and these are all the papers- read them carefully."

- Has Kim got a passport?
- Which country does she go to?

"can I go too , Dad?" asks Andy.
" I can't drive a truck,
but I can drive a car and read
a map and I can speak French.
Perhaps I can help Kim."

"And you want to go to France . I know!
Ok, you two. Run home and get your passports, your overnight bags and some sandwiches.

There are sleeping bags in the truck,
and a mobile phone too. When you come back, go and look at the map with Gary. He drives to France every week.
He can tell you about it."
