

The PENGUINS of MADAGASCAR

An Elephant Never Forgets

blow darts

A large, yellow, knitted teddy bear sculpture lies on its back in a city square. The bear's head is in the foreground, with its eyes and nose visible. Its long limbs are spread out across the cobblestone pavement. Several people are standing around the bear, providing a sense of scale. In the background, there are historic buildings, including a church with a tall spire on the left and a multi-story building with many windows on the right. The sky is clear and blue.

ginormous

extremely large chemical organic

camouflage

The use of leaves, branches, paints, and clothes for hiding soldiers or military equipment so that they cannot be seen against the area around them.

scent

We got to move out.

largest living land mammal

urgency

Pre-viewing task

Before reading, predict how the penguins will deal with Alice, the zoo worker, and the elephant's escape. What obstacles could arise, and how would they handle them?

2:00

A rectangular image in the bottom-right corner showing a beach scene with waves crashing onto a sandy shore under a colorful sunset sky. The text '2:00' is overlaid in white.

While-viewing task

- 1-What dangerous item did Skipper warn Private about, suggesting it could have been deadly if they weren't careful?
- 2-Why does Skipper refer to the elephant's escape as a "breakout"?
- 3-What was the first obstacle the penguins faced in their mission to get the elephant across town?

hay bales

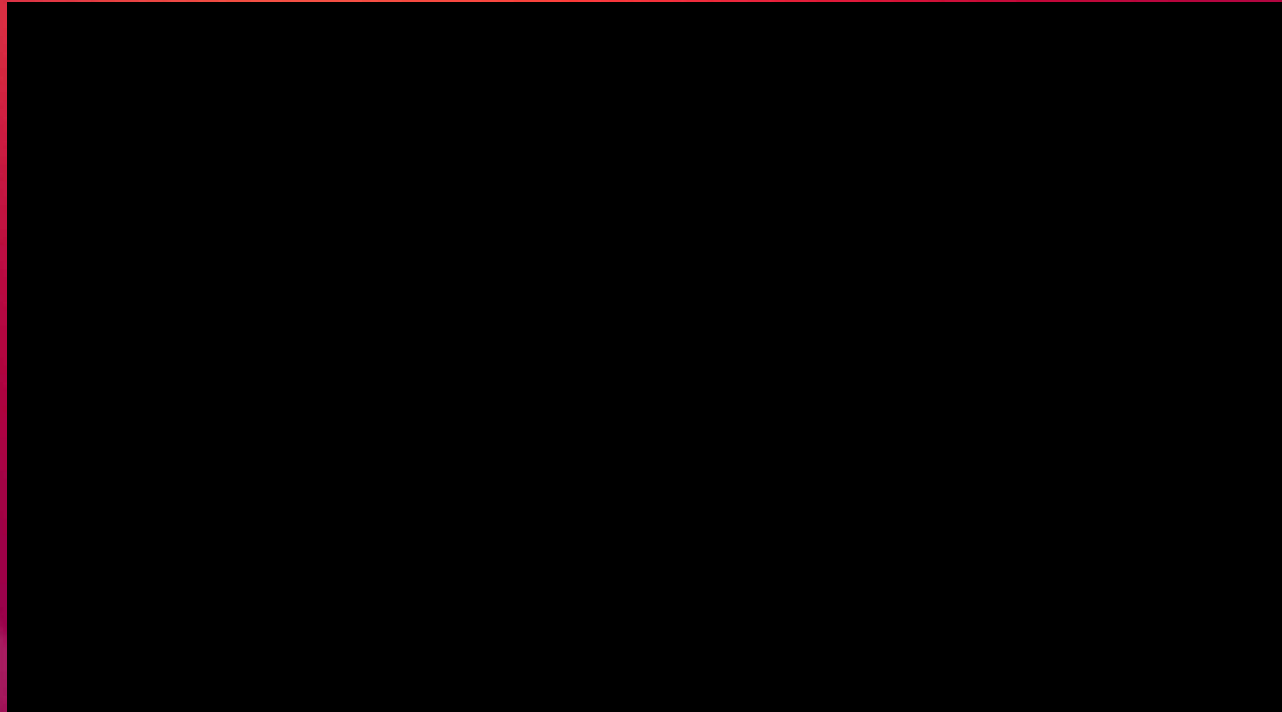

kazoo

The boy with the kazoo. (kid kazoo)

jumbo-sized ears

Post-viewing task :

1-What was the funniest part of the scene? Was it the kazoo, the elephant, or something else?

2-Who is Kid Kazoo? How did he behave as a child, and why is he upset now?

3-What was the main problem in the story? How did the penguins try to solve it?

03:00

Follow-up task

Fill in the blacks by using the correct word:

urgency / hay bales / organic / kazoo / ginormous / scent / chemical

1-I heard a loud noise coming from the next room. It was my little brother playing his -----.

2-he farmer stacked the ----- in the barn to keep them dry for the winter.

3-The ----- of fresh flowers filled the air as I walked through the garden.

4-The cleaner has a strong ----- smell, so I make sure to open a window when I use it.

5-Our family switched to using ----- soap to reduce chemicals in our daily routine.

6-When the phone rang, I could hear the ----- in my mom's voice, telling me to hurry home.