

1 Look at the sentences from the text. The words join two ideas to make a sentence.

They're great because they have two floors.
Drivers know every part of London, but this transport can be expensive.
It's healthy and there are places to ride with no cars.
Information centres can tell you which station or airport is best for you.

Choose the correct words to complete the sentences.

- We use because / and / but / or to give a different, possible idea.
- We use because / and / but / or to give a reason.
- We use because / and / but / or to give more ideas and information.
- We use because / and / but / or to add a different and opposite idea.
