Hi Bess,

I'm having a party on the beach to celebrate the end of term. It's on Sunday 20 July and starts at 3 p.m.

In the afternoon, we're going to try two different water-sports: jet-skiing and kite surfing. It's going to be a lot of fun!

In the evening, we're having a BBQ on the beach, with loads of food and music too. Please let me know if you can come.

Lisa

PS My dad is doing the BBQ, so you don't have to bring anything.

Dear ' _____',

Thank you so much for your invitation. It sounds like a great way to celebrate the start of the school holidays. Unfortunately, I can't make it because I'm going to be in France with my parents.

We get back on 27 July. It would be nice to meet up some time. Why don't we go to the cinema?

I hope you enjoy the party!

Paddy

Writing Strategy

In an informal text, you can use common abbreviations like e.g. and etc. You should use short forms like I'm and don't, not full forms (I am and do not).

Use the suggestions on the part. No. 4 and invite someone.

WRITE ABOUT ONE OF THESE TOPICS

- the reason for the party (birthday, end of exams, etc.).
- the date, time and place of the party.
- any instructions (what the person should bring, wear, etc.).
