

Plural Nouns: Rules

Follow the rules to complete the sentences with the plural nouns.

Consonant + y = $\text{y} \rightarrow \text{-ies}$ Vowel + y + s	baby = babies key = keys
---	-----------------------------

Mr. and Mrs. Parker have one girl and two _____ (boy).

The students in my class come from many _____ (country).

I know the names of many _____ (city) in Canada.

-fe / f = fe/f \rightarrow ves	wife = wives
----------------------------------	--------------

It is fall. The _____ (leaf) are yellow and red.

Sue and Anne are married. They are _____ (wife).

We all have some problems in our _____ (life).

-sh + -es -ch + -es -ss + -es -x + -es	dish = dishes match = matches class = classes box = boxes
---	--

Bob drinks eight _____ (glass) of water every day.

I can see trees and _____ (bush) outside the window.

All citizens pay their _____ (tax) in April.

Consonant + o + es Vowel + o + s	tomatoes zoos
-------------------------------------	------------------

The _____ (potato) are on sale at the grocery store this week.

Before families had TVs, they had _____ (radio) in their homes.

The firefighters are _____ (hero).