

Alavi

21st Century Schools

Hello!!!

1

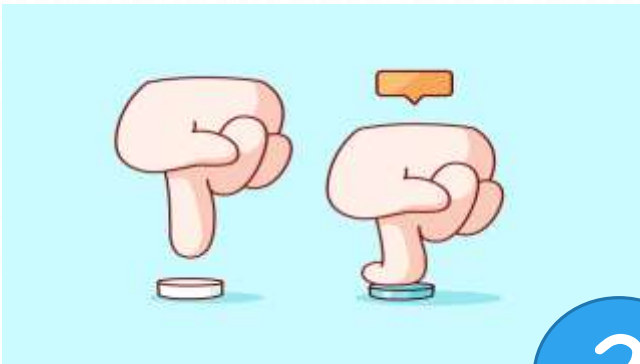

review
TIME

4

7

2

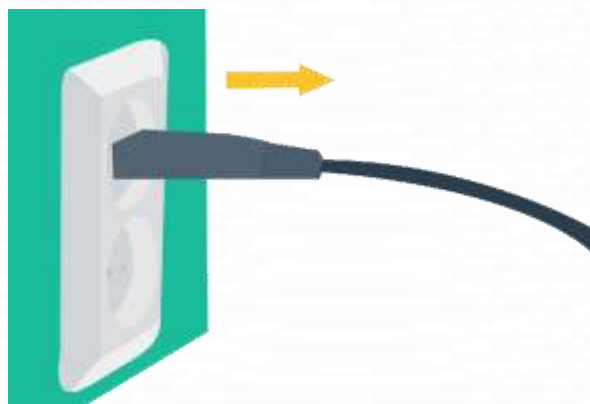

5

8

3

6

9

Let's read and match.

1. You have to wear your uniform at school.
2. When you have a cough, you need to drink hot water.
3. They know their lessons. They don't need to study more.
4. Today she has a field trip at school. She doesn't have to wear her uniform.

It is important for you to do it.

It is OK not to do it.

You must do it.

It isn't necessary.

need to - have to

A. When you are forced to (must) do an activity, you use.....

B. When it is important for you to do an activity you use.....

don't need to - don't have to

- A. When you are not forced to do an activity you use.....
- B. When it is not necessary to do an activity you use.....

GRAMMAR

LOOK!

TIP!

We use need to for necessities.
We use have to for obligations.

I/You We/They	need to have lunch. have to study Maths.	I/You We/They	don't need to eat now. don't have to study Italian.
He/She	needs to eat lunch. has to study Maths.	He/She	doesn't need to eat now. doesn't have to study Italian.

Do you need to / have to go now?
Does Robbie need to / have to go now?

10

Write sentences using need to.
Then listen and check.

- 1 Lisa wants to print her work. (plug in the printer)
- 2 I want to move the cursor. (move the mouse)
- 3 We want to save electricity. (turn off extra lights)
- 4 The boys want to play a game. (click on the start button)
- 5 I want to type a sentence. (use the keyboard)
- 6 Harry wants to listen to music. (put on headphones)

11

Look at the job table. Write sentences with have to.

	study for a Maths test	do a Science project	practise the piano
Greg	no	yes	no
Kate	yes	no	yes
Tim and Suzy	no	yes	no

12

What do you have to / need to do today?
Ask and answer questions with a partner.

Do you have to/need to ... this week?

Yes, I do. / No, I don't.

call a friend

check your email

do a project

go shopping

have a snack

read a book

study for a test

tidy your room

The image features a white background with several realistic water droplets of various sizes scattered around the central text. The droplets have highlights and shadows, giving them a three-dimensional appearance.

Thanks