

P 64

Ms. Asgari

Hello perfect girls.

Let's review.

Now connect the words to the right pictures.

taste

tongue

digestion

chocolate

What do you usually buy from supermarkets or department stores (like Shahrvand) ?

Let's go to the book .

27 Read the blogs. Then look and match.

Shopping for food

1 Bao's blog

We buy our food at the floating market. It opens at four o'clock in the morning. There are a lot of boats and you can climb from one boat to another to buy things. You can buy fish, rice, vegetables and lots of fruit. My favourite fruit is durian. It's green on the outside and yellow on the inside. Some people don't like durian because it's got a strong smell, but I love it!

2 Lily's blog

We don't buy our fruit at the supermarket. We grow it in our garden. The UK is too cold for peaches and bananas but there are two apple trees and a big plum tree in our garden. We grow vegetables in the spring and summer, too. We've also got some hens in our garden and we eat their eggs. There's only one problem - they love eating our vegetable seeds!

Lily, 12, United Kingdom

3 Silvia's blog

In my city, Buenos Aires, there are some amazing bakeries. You can buy a lot of different types of cakes there. There's a lot of dulce de leche in the cakes. I often go to a bakery after school with my friends. Cake is my favourite food.

Silvia, 11, Argentina

28 Read again and choose.

Now let's skim it. Read the texts in 1 minute.

Now write T (true) or F (false) .

- Boa buys his food at the floating market ? ...T...
- People don't like durian because it's ugly ? ...F...
- Lily buys fruit from supermarket ? ...F.....
- In Silvia's city you can only buy one kind of cake there ? F...

28 Read again and choose.

- 1 The floating market opens in the morning / evening.
- 2 You can buy dulce de leche / durian fruit at the floating market.
- 3 Silvia always / often goes to a bakery after school.
- 4 In the summer, Lily's family grows flowers / vegetables.
- 5 Lily gets her fruit from the garden / supermarket.

27 Read the blogs. Then look and match.

Shopping for food

1 Bao's blog

We buy our food at the floating market. It opens at four o'clock in the morning. There are a lot of boats and you can climb from one boat to another to buy things. You can buy fish, rice, vegetables and lots of fruit. My favourite fruit is durian. It's green on the outside and yellow on the inside. Some people don't like durian because it's got a strong smell, but I love it!

2 Lily's blog

We don't buy our fruit at the supermarket. We grow it in our garden. The UK is too cold for peaches and bananas but there are two apple trees and a big plum tree in our garden. We grow vegetables in the spring and summer, too. We've also got some hens in our garden and we eat their eggs. There's only one problem – they love eating our vegetable seeds!

Lily, 12, United Kingdom

3 Silvia's blog

In my city, Buenos Aires, there are some amazing bakeries. You can buy a lot of different types of cakes there. There's a lot of dulce de leche in the cakes. I often go to a bakery after school with my friends. Cake is my favourite food.

Silvia, 11, Argentina

28 Read again and choose.

Let's read it aloud.

Now tell me what you can remember about them.

Bye good girls.

