Cheese rolling

Every May, people roll a big cheese down Cooper's Hill in England. Then everyone runs down the hill. They want to catch the cheese. The winner can eat the cheese. My dad likes doing the race, but he never wins. He isn't very good at running!

Skim read the texts in 2 minutes.

2 Elephant polo

People usually play polo on horses, but in India, people sometimes play polo on elephants. They sit on elephants and hit the ball with very long sticks. I don't play because I'm not very good at hitting the ball. But I like watching.
