

Murphy's Law

If you change queues in a supermarket, what will happen? The queue you were in before will move more quickly. You know what will happen, because there's a law of life that says, "if something bad can happen, it will happen". It's called Murphy's Law, and it took its name from Captain Edward Murphy, an American aeroplane engineer from the 1940s.

He was investigating why planes crashed, and not surprisingly, he got a reputation for always thinking of the worst thing that can happen in every situation...

he/she'll wake up early you'll need it later there'll be a lot of traffic

it will be delayed

they won't like you you'll see a parking space very near your boss will arrive early a lot of people will ring you

1. If you're single and you meet somebody you really like, _____
2. If you throw something away, _____
3. If you park a long way from where you're going, _____
4. If your baby goes to sleep late, _____
5. If you're driving somewhere and you're in a hurry, _____
6. If you arrive very early to catch a plane, _____
7. If you get to work late, _____
8. If you leave your mobile phone at home, _____