

 Songbirds

Phonics

The Upside-down Browns

Julia
Donaldson

Oxford
Reading
Tree

Mr and Mrs Brown read the paper upside down.

and coffee comes out of their taps.

Mr and Mrs Brown have a funny round house.

It spins round and round like a roundabout.

Mr Brown puts on his trousers to have a shower.

He blows his nose on a towel.

He puts on his sun hat when it is cloudy.

He takes it off when the sun comes out.

Mrs Brown is funny too.

She bounces around in a crown.

She puts flour on her nose

and she puts powder in the cakes.

Mr and Mrs Brown go to town in their dressing gowns.

They climb mountains in their slippers.

They grow flowers in their bed.

And they sleep outside in the flower bed.

And when Mr and Mrs Brown
see a clown ...

they frown!

But if you think Mr and Mrs Brown are funny ...

how about their pets?

