

My father always plans for the weekends. He never lets me down. We normally go out when the weather is good. My favorite is the zoo. I love watching the tigers. They are usually asleep, but I was lucky this time. Dad often brings his camera and sometimes he takes too much pictures! So everytime we have a big album for each occasion. My mom rarely joins us but I guess the zoo is her favorite too. I love when she comes along because once in a while she buys me ice cream. I'm looking forward in weekends everyday!
