Who's this? It's the shoemaker.
The tired old shoemaker.
It's four o'clock in the afternoon
and he's walking home.
He's got some red leather.

leather shoemaker

And here's his shop.
The old shoe shop.
It isn't a very good shop.
It doesn't make much money.

The shoemaker goes to his table. 'Look at this leather,' he says to his wife.
'What beautiful red leather!' she says.

'One last pair of shoes', says the old shoemaker. 'That's all I can make. I haven't got any more money.'

'It's late,' says his wife.
'Make them in the morning.'
'It's a quarter past twelve. Let's go upstairs to bed.'

In the morning, they come down. It's sunny.
There's something on the table! It's the shoes!
'Look!' cries the shoemaker. 'Magic!'
'What beautiful shoes!' The shoemaker is happy.
'Let's put them in the shop window,' he says.
'I want people to see them.'

The little elves run in.
They jump onto the table.
'Here's the shoemaker's leather!' they say.
'We do good work. We work hard.
Let's work! Let's make some beautiful shoes!'

All night they work.
They work and work and work.
The shoemaker and his wife hide in the cupboard and watch.

In the morning the elves run away.
But there's something on the table.
Four beautiful pairs of shoes!
There's a pair of white shoes. There's a pair of green boots. There's a pair of pink shoes.
And there's a pair of blue and yellow shoes.

'Now we know,' says the shoemaker.
'We know who helps us.'
'Yes,' says his wife. 'Two little elves.
But what can we do for them?'

'I know,' says the shoemaker.

'Let's make some clothes for them. They need some shoes, a new coat and a new pair of trousers.'

'Oh, yes!' says his wife. 'Yes!'

Night comes.

The shoemaker and his wife put the new clothes into little boxes.

They put the boxes on the table.

Then they hide in the cupboard.

At midnight the little elves run in.

'What's this?' they say.

'Something for us? For us? Oh, yes! It's something for us!'

They put on the new clothes and they dance.

Dance, dance, dance!

Because they know!
Because they know!
say the elves.
'Goodbye, shoemaker!'
They run outside into the snow and they run away.

The elves never come back.
But now the shoemaker makes good shoes.
Now he can buy a lot of leather.
And he works very hard. Now his shop is a good shop.
And the shoemaker and his wife are very happy.
