Last week, Nick got some money for his birthday. He and his sister Mary went to a department store because he wanted to buy some toys.

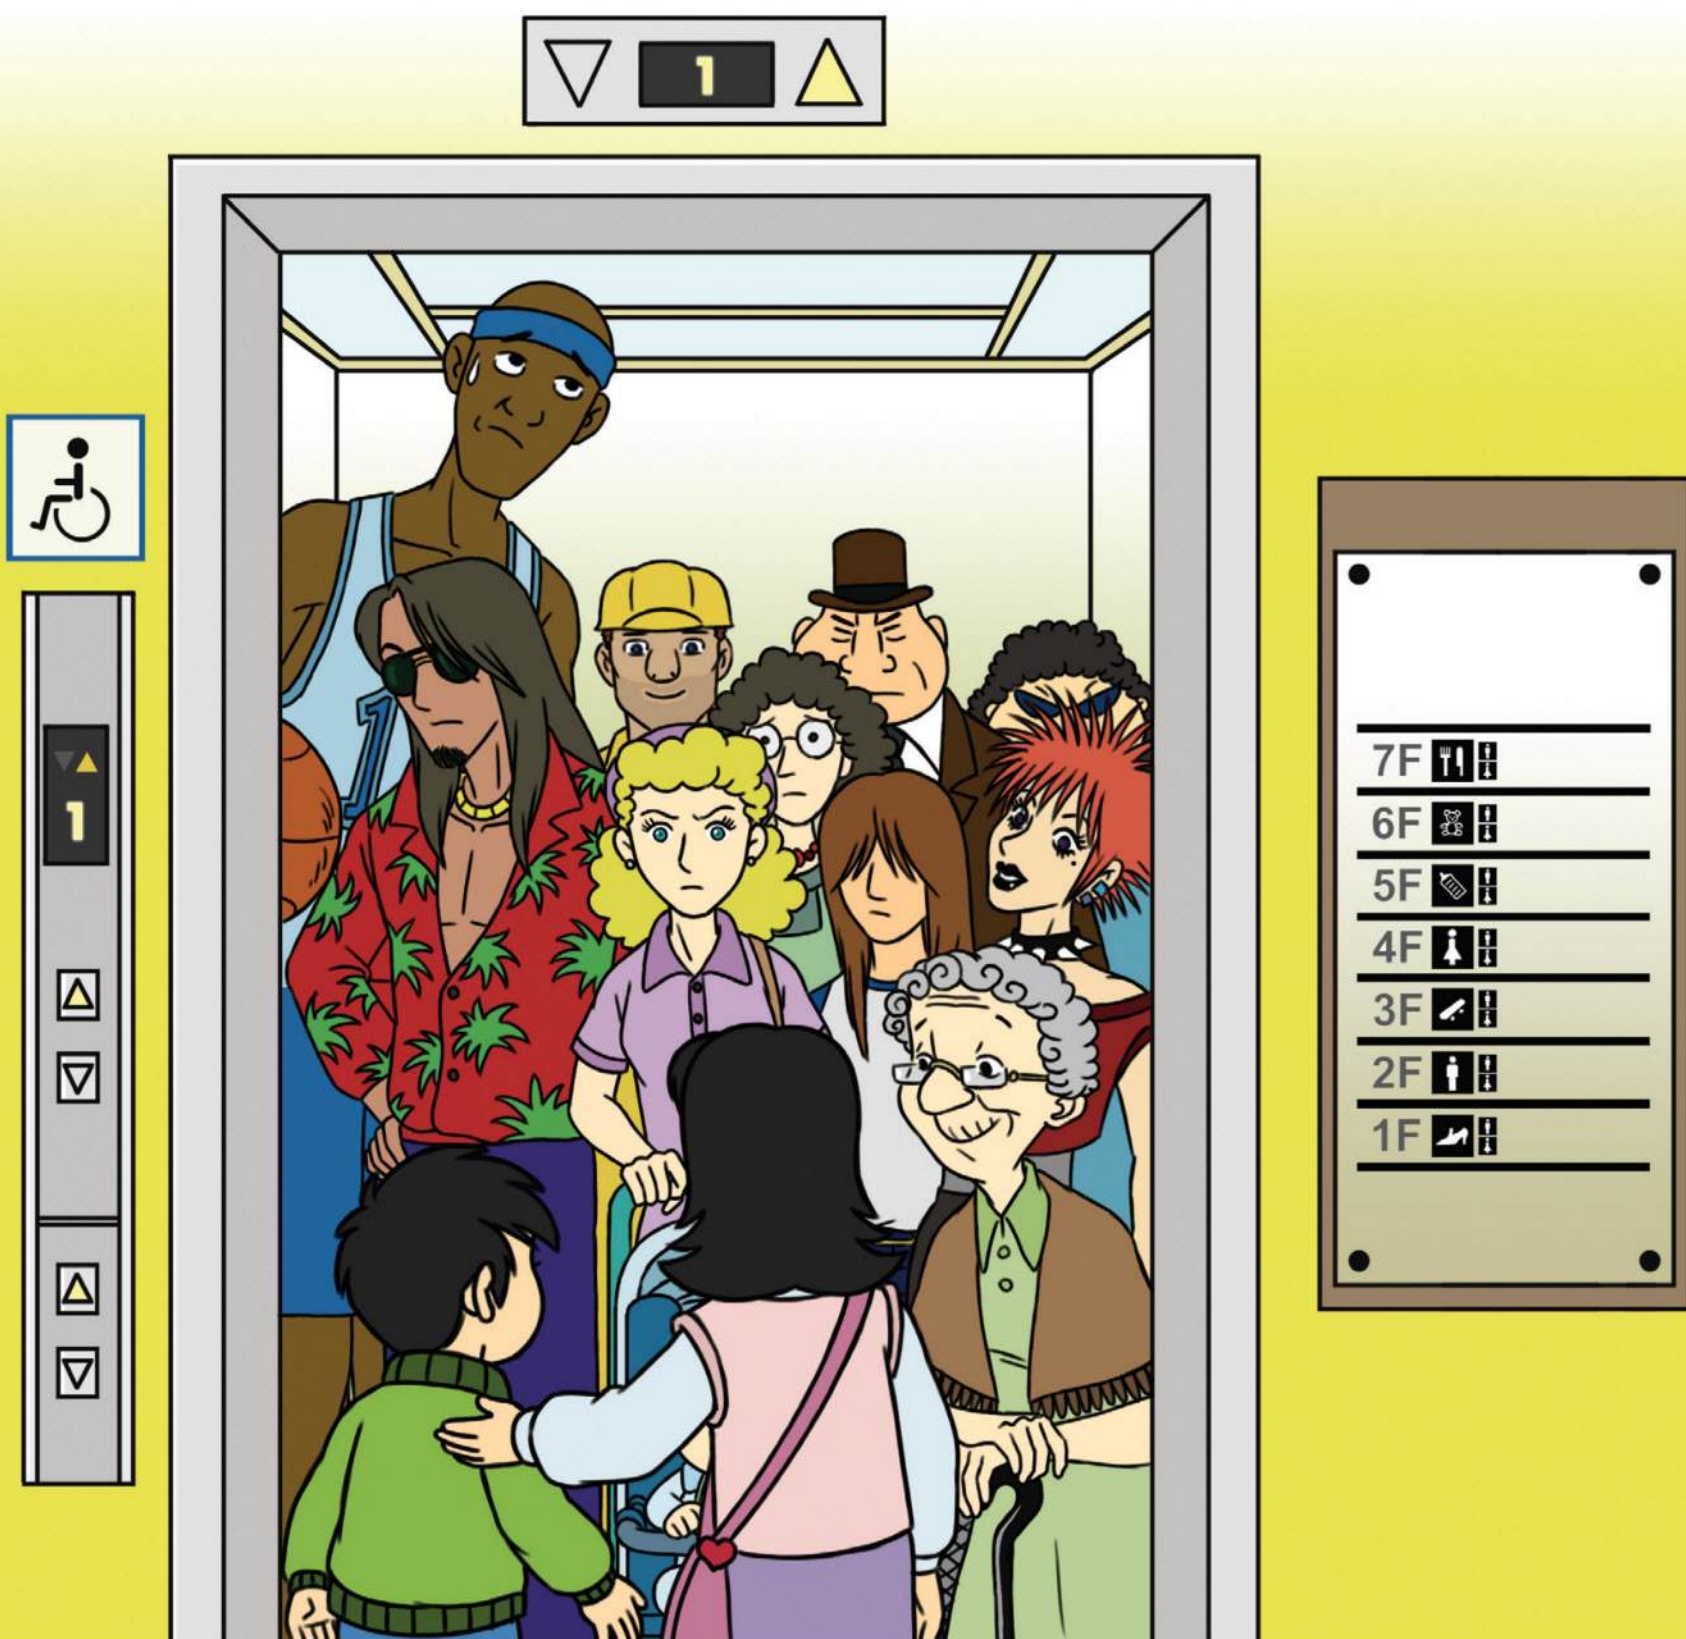

“The toys are on the sixth floor,” said Mary.

“Where are the elevators?” asked Nick.

Check  true or false.

	True	False
① Mary and Nick are in a restaurant.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
② It is Nick's birthday today.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
③ Nick wants to look at the pets.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
④ The toys are on the sixth floor.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
⑤ Mary wants to buy shoes.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
⑥ Nick is Mary's brother.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
⑦ Mary and Nick are on the first floor.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
⑧ Mary is wearing a hat.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
⑨ Nick cannot see the elevator.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
⑩ Nick is younger than Mary.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

“Let’s take this one! It’s going up,” said Mary.

“Wow! Look at all the people! It’s almost full,” said Nick.

There was an old lady, a young man, a boy, a young woman with a baby, and lots of other people.

Read and then answer the questions.

There are four people in an elevator. The elevator is on the first floor. The elevator goes up. On the second floor two people get in the elevator. It goes to the third floor. Three people get out and one person gets in. On the fourth floor five people get in and nobody gets out. On the fifth floor one person gets out. On the sixth floor half the people get out and two people get in.

- ① How many people are there in the elevator now?
- ② How many people got out on the fourth floor?
- ③ What was the highest number of people in the elevator?
- ④ What was the lowest number of people in the elevator?
- ⑤ On which floor did the most people get out?
- ⑥ How many times did the elevator stop?

6

The elevator stopped at the second floor.
The young man got out.

“Why is he wearing sunglasses?” asked Nick. “It isn’t sunny.”

“Shhh!” said Mary. “Don’t ask silly questions.”
