

7

7 Listen and repeat the sentences. Then listen and match.

VOCABULARY

A: <sup>1</sup> ... . Can I help you?

B: Yes, please. I'm looking for some <sup>2</sup> ... .

A: Are they for you?

B: No, they aren't. They're a present for <sup>3</sup> ... .

A: How about these <sup>4</sup> ... ?

B: They're nice. How much do they cost?

A: They usually cost <sup>5</sup> ... .

B: Oh! That's <sup>6</sup> ... for me.

A: It's OK. They're on sale today!

B: Really? How much <sup>7</sup> ... ?

A: They're only <sup>8</sup> ... today.

B: That's great! I'll have them, please.

17 Work with a partner. Write a new conversation.

You go to a shop in the afternoon. You're looking for a watch, but it isn't for you. It's for a friend's birthday. You've got ten pounds. There's a nice modern watch. It usually costs fifteen pounds, but today it's on sale for only £7.50.

18 Act out your conversation.

VALUES

Don't spend too much money. It's important to save money, too.

15 Read and circle.

Sales assistant: Good morning, can I <sup>1</sup> help / helping you?

Terri: Yes, please. I'm <sup>2</sup> looked / looking for a belt.

Sales assistant: OK, <sup>3</sup> is it / are they for you?

Terri: No, it's a present for my sister.

Sales assistant: Well, how <sup>4</sup> around / about this one?

Terri: Yes, it's nice. How <sup>5</sup> many / much does it cost?

Sales assistant: It's usually £19.99.

Terri: Oh, that's too <sup>6</sup> much / enough. I've only got £15.00.

Sales assistant: That's good because there's a special offer today!

Terri: Really? How much <sup>7</sup> is it / are they today then?

Sales assistant: It's only £14.99. But that's just the price for today!

Terri: Perfect! I'll <sup>8</sup> take / taking it, please.

16 Write your own conversation with a sales assistant.

- You're looking for a cardigan for a friend's birthday and you've got £20.00.
- There's a nice patterned cardigan.
- It usually costs £25.00, but today it's on sale for only £19.99.

---

---

---

---

---

---