I'll never forget my son's childhood milestones. He learnt to <sup>1</sup> crawl when he was about a year old – once he could move, there was no stopping him!

He also learnt to <sup>2</sup> talk at about that time – his first word was 'Dada'! He started <sup>3</sup> kindergarten when he was four. I'll never forget his first day because he cried when I left. He looked very smart because he was wearing a school uniform for the first time. He lost <sup>5</sup> his first tooth when he was six years old. He was so excited to see it come out of his mouth!
