My favourite book is Kidnapped, which was published in 1886. The book was written by the famous author Robert Louis Stevenson who came from Scotland. It's about a young man, David Balfour, who is kidnapped, but who escapes and has an exciting adventure.

At the start of the book, David Balfour is 17 years old and his father has just died. He visits his Uncle Ebenezer's house, which is in Scotland. His uncle tries to kill him because he wants to keep his father's money. Then he kidnaps him and sends him away on a ship. David makes friends with a man called Alan Breck, who works on the ship. Together, they escape and return to Scotland to find Ebenezer. At the end, David's uncle agrees to give him his money and David becomes a rich man. The book finishes with David and Alan Breck saying goodbye as Breck leaves for France.

I really enjoyed this book because it's a great adventure story. I would recommend this book to anyone who is crazy about history and likes adventure stories.
