

Grammar in Use

D Listen and read along. 1.04

E Read the sentences. Which word tells about the race? Which word tells about Jay?

- a That race was really tiring.
- b I'm so tired.

F Learn Grammar Adjectives with -ed and -ing

Adjectives that end in -ed tell about how we feel.

Adjectives that end in -ing usually tell about a thing, such as a game or a movie.

The people are excited. The game is exciting.

Circle exciting or excited.

- 1 The kids are exciting / excited to go to the show.
- 2 The women are playing an exciting / excited soccer game.
- 3 My brother is reading an exciting / excited book.
- 4 We are exciting / excited to go to the festival.

G Write sentences in your notebook using adjectives with -ed and -ing. Tell your partner.

bored boring interested interesting excited exciting

Animals are interesting.
I'm interested in horses.

Level:

Flyers 1

Alavi

Full Name:

Date:

Topic:

Grammar

07/07

Circle the correct adjective.

1. The roller coaster is exciting / excited.
2. I am exciting / excited about the trip.
3. This book is boring / bored.
4. My brother is boring / bored today.
5. The children are interesting / interested in animals.
6. The science show is interesting / interested.

Complete the sentences. Use the words in the box.

bored boring excited exciting interested interesting

1. My friends are _____ about the school trip.
2. The movie was _____, so I fell asleep.
3. I am _____ in dinosaurs.
4. The football match was _____!
5. We were _____ because there was nothing to do.

Comment:

A wedding is always a big celebration! In Egypt, dancers and musicians gather around the married couple and dance for up to one hour! Then people eat a special dinner.

