

Grammar in Use

- C Listen and sing along. We Are a Family  1:04

We are a family.
A brother and a brother,
And a sister, that's me!
A mother and a father,
And kids, one, two, three!
We are a family.

- D  Learn Grammar Verb: Be

I'm six years old.

He's eight years old.

I am → I'm

My family is big.

Friends are important.

He is → He's

Write about yourself. Then tell a partner.

Me
I'm _____.
_____ I'm _____ years old.
My family _____ is _____.

I'm Lisa. I'm eight years old. My family is big.

- E Write about your partner. Tell the class.

My Partner
He's / She's _____.
_____ years old.
His / Her family _____.

He's Ben. He's seven years old. His family is small.

AM, IS ARE

1. Look at the pictures. Write am, is or are.

1

I _____ happy.

2

She _____ my sister.

3

They _____ friends.

4

He _____ at school.

5

It _____ a cat.

6

We _____ at home.

7

You _____ in class.

8

It _____ a book.

9

They _____ happy.

2. Read the words. Put them in the correct backpack.

I

he

she

it

you

we

they

am

is

are

Elderly people

Elderly people are an important part of our society. They have a lot of life experience and knowledge. We should respect and love them. They need our care, attention, and support. We can help them with daily activities, listen to their stories, and spend time with them. Elderly people teach us many valuable lessons about life. We should always be kind and respectful to them.