Compare and Contrast

Remember, to compare things, we tell how they're the same. To contrast things, we tell how they're different.

- Read the text. What's the same? What's different?
- Write the words in the Venn diagram.

Lily and Emma are ten years old.
Lily lives in a big house in the countryside and Emma lives in a small apartment in the city.
They both have cats. Lily has a brown cat and Emma has a white cat.
