

A comet is a lump of ice and dirt that moves in a large orbit around the Sun. Between Mars and Jupiter are rocky objects called asteroids that orbit the Sun. When rocks and particles from space enter Earth's atmosphere, we call them meteors or shooting stars.