Let's tweak some preferences

You will be able to access these and other settings later from the app side menu

Preserve files on exit

Auto-save editor state whenever you close the app, prevents accidental data loss

Dark theme

Always use dark theme. System-wide setting will be used otherwise

Tab inserts spaces

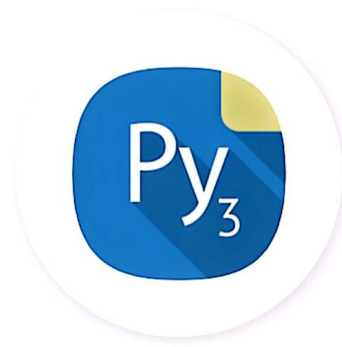

Make tab button insert spaces: it's a matter of preference, but if you don't have any, we recommend to leave tab inserting tabs. In Python it is very important to keep your indentation style consistent
