Let's revise what we learned about architecture

Famous examples & civilizations

Greece - Parthenon

Temples with tall columns

Rome - Colosseum

Arena for shows and games

Persia (Iran) - Persepolis

Royal city with grand columns and carvings

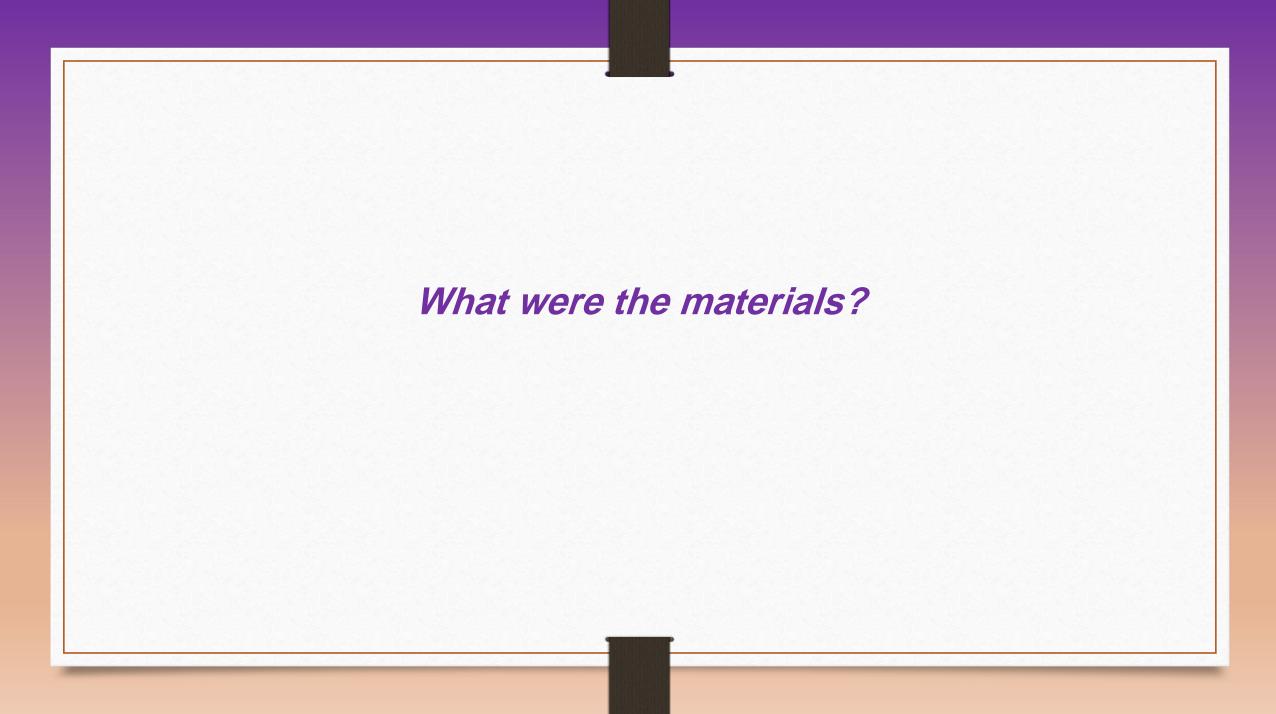

How ancient buildings were built?

Of course they were built without machines.

Wood

AND

PRACTICE

il in th

The tombs for pharaohs are in Egypt and they are called Pyramids of Giza

Colosseum

is an arena for shows and games.

What are Ziggurats?

They are temples shaped like steps.

Where are they?

They're in Mesopotamia.

Where is the Great Wall?

It's in China.

What is the function of that?

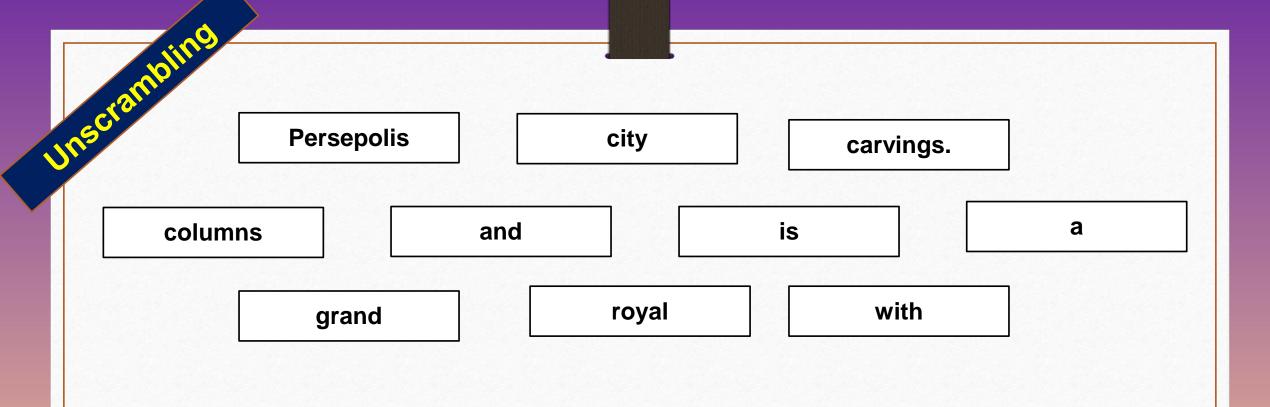

It's a defense structure.

Temples shaped like steps

Parthenon

Temples with tall columns

Ziggurats

Persepolis is a royal city with grand columns and carvings.

Mine

Name the pyramids and places in Latin America.

What is modern architecture?

The style of buildings built mostly in the last 100 years.

New ideas

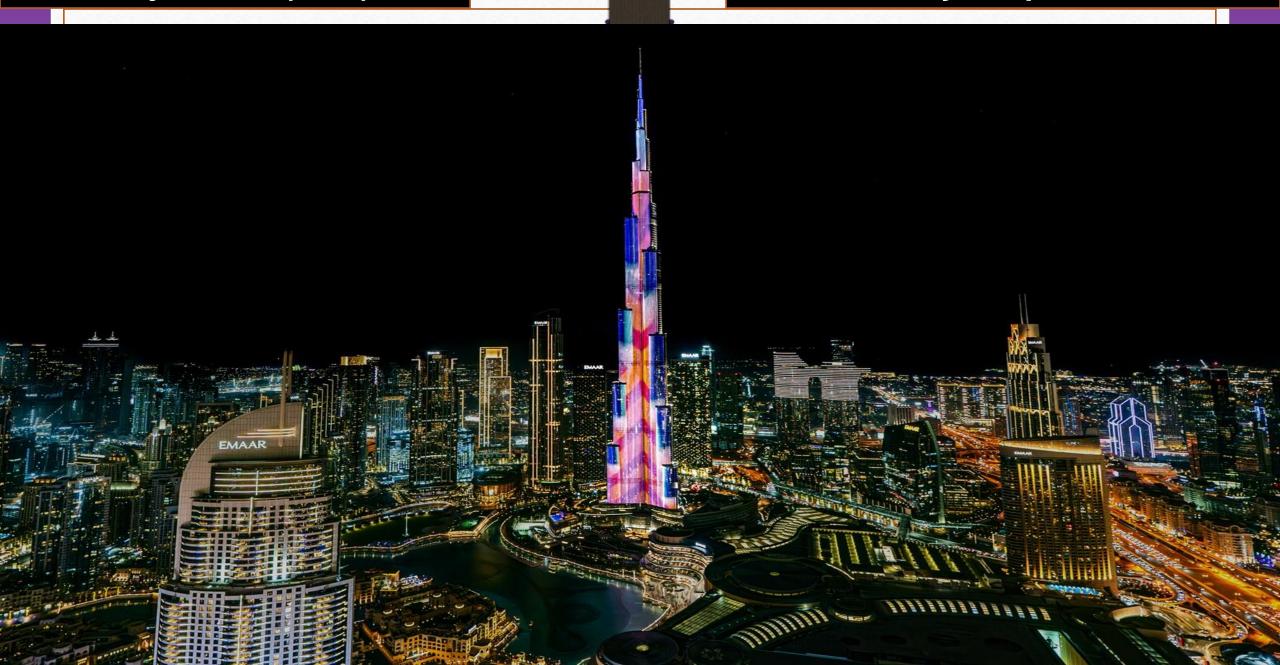

Simple shapes

Open spaces

Using eco-friendly (green) ideas

Famous examples of modern architecture

The Shard (UK)

Glass tower that looks like a sharp crystal

Strong modern materials

Minimalist

Very simple design

Three of the shapes and looks

Asymmetrical

Curved

Transparent

It's a very tall building.

A very simple design.

It's the meaning of minimalist.

A new and smart idea.

It's the meaning of innovation.

skyscraper

Jamino

Name three strong modern materials.

Steel

Glass

Concrete

Burj Khalifa

is the tallest skyscraper in the world.

The Shard (UK) is a glass tower that looks like a ...

C R Y S T A L

swerthe tions

What's the name of the house built over a waterfall?

It's Fallingwater.

What's the opposite of symmetrical?

It's asymmetrical.

