

characters – the people or animals in a story.

scene – one part of a story that shows what is happening.

storyboard – a series of pictures that show the steps or events in a story

scene : one part of a story that shows what is happening.

characters: the people or animals in a Title: the name of a book, story or make up: (a problem) to create something from your imagination solution: the answer to a problem

Excited: very happy and interested proof-read :to check writing for mistakes

Share: to give something to others or show it to them